When I first came to spiritual direction I had a great deal of bible knowledge. I also had a great deal of spiritual insecurity.

Coming to spiritual direction I found God inviting me to do less; to be as a child, to rest, to be loved.

All are welcome to join me on this journey of desiring something more, something new – especially those in ministry and my fellow LGBT/SSA siblings.

I love hiking, skiing, flowers, golf(?), my wife Renee, laughter, and our adult sons.
